

Significant Financial Hardship Withdrawal Form

You can scan the completed application form and other listed requirements and email them to support@goalsgetter.co.nz or post them to:

GoalsGetter KiwiSaver Scheme
PO Box 3892, Shortland Street, Auckland 1142

What you need to know before you apply

KiwiSaver has been designed as a savings scheme to be used for retirement. As such, there are limited circumstances in which you can apply to make a withdrawal of some or all of your savings.

If you can provide evidence that you're suffering or likely to suffer significant financial hardship, you may be able to withdraw some of your KiwiSaver savings. You'll also need to provide proof that you've explored all other reasonable alternative sources of funding as part of your application.

Significant financial hardship includes if you're:

- unable to meet minimum living expenses
- unable to meet mortgage repayments on the home you live in, resulting in your mortgage provider seeking to enforce the mortgage on your property
- unable to pay rent/board payments
- modifying your home to meet special needs because of you or a dependent family member having a disability
- paying for medical treatment if you or a dependent family member:
 - becomes ill, or
 - has an injury
- paying for palliative care for you or a dependent family member
- suffering from a serious illness (although you could in this circumstance apply to make a serious illness withdrawal)
- incurring funeral costs if a dependent family member dies.

Minimum living expenses include the actual and reasonable costs of (taking into account regional differences, such as in rent/power costs):

- Basic food and grocery items
- Accommodation
- mortgage repayments, interest, rates and necessary maintenance for the home you live in, rent and board
- Basic clothing
- Utility services such as power, gas and telecommunications
- Basic transport costs - Fire and general insurance (including medical insurance)
- Medical and dental costs necessary for the maintenance of good health
- School fees (excluding private school fees) and tertiary education costs - Expenses in relation to any dependents with special needs
- Other normal (non-luxury) household items.

Have you:

- Asked Work and Income New Zealand (WINZ) for assistance?
- Contacted IRD about taking a contributions holiday (if you are eligible)?
- Sought budgeting advice from a Budget Advisory Service?

How much can you apply for?

You can apply to withdraw all your funds less member tax credits (and the $1,000 kick-start, if applicable). The Supervisor of the GoalsGetter KiwiSaver Scheme is responsible for considering your application and will determine the amount you require to relieve your hardship. This amount will likely be what is sufficient to cover a shortfall in your minimum living expenses for three months, and an amount to pay overdue bills or arrears.

If you provide us with all the requested details with your application, the process including consideration of your application, may take up to 5 business days. If we need to ask you for any additional information, this will cause delays in approval, so it's important you read this application form, including the checklist, and complete it correctly and fully.

Applying for a Hardship Withdrawal

If you think you're eligible for a KiwiSaver Significant Financial Hardship withdrawal you need to:

1. Complete all parts of this application form
2. Provide all of the supporting documents listed in the checklist
3. Complete the statutory declaration and have it witnessed by a person authorised to take Statutory Declarations
4. Provide certified copies of proof of your identity and address
5. Send us your application to the address listed below

We will check your application and supporting documents and will then contact you if we require any further information. We won't be able to progress your application further until we receive all the information requested. We'll then send your application to the Supervisor for assessment. They will make the final decision with regards to your withdrawal.

We'll let you know the outcome of your application. If your application has been approved, we will make payment to the account you provided details of on your application form.
